GLOBAL CINEMASPECTIVES FILM & DISCUSSION SERIES: "BASHU"

During the Iran-Iraq War, Bashu loses his house and all his family. Scared, he sneaks into a truck that is leaving the area. He ends up in the northern part of Iran, where everything from landscape to language is different. He meets Naii, who is trying to raise her two young children while her husband is away. Despite cultural differences and the fact that they do not speak the same language, Bashu and Naii slowly form a strong bond.

A post-film discussion will be led by Prof. Walter Hakala, Department of English, UB.

Date: Friday, October 28

Time: 5:00 p.m.

Place: Knox Hall 4, North Campus

Co-sponsored by International Student & Scholar Services and the Undergraduate Academies.
