“FERGUSON, MO INFOCUS: THE CHALLENGE OF RACE, RIGHTS AND LAW ENFORCEMENT IN ‘POST-RACIAL’ AMERICA”
***********************************************************************

You are invited to InFocus, a monthly conversation on today’s hot topics. This month’s conversation will use the recent killing of an unarmed, African-American teenager by a police officer in Ferguson, Missouri as the springboard for a larger discussion on race, class and law enforcement in the U.S.

Teresa Miller, Vice Provost for Equity & Inclusion and Professor of Law, SUNY Buffalo Law School, will moderate the discussion.
GLOBAL CINEMASPECTIVES FILM & DISCUSSION SERIES: “CHOCOLAT”

A young French woman returns to West Africa to contemplate her childhood days in Northern French Cameroon, where her father was a colonial administrator. Her strongest memories are of the family's houseboy Protee, who was a man of great nobility, and of the intricate nature of relationships between French expatriates and native Africans.

Prof. Shaun Irlam, Department of Comparative Literature, will introduce the film and lead a discussion following the screening.

Date: Friday, September 19
Time: 5:00-7:30 p.m.
