APPLYING FOR A CANADIAN VISITOR VISA Information for International Students, Scholars and Employees

How to Apply for a Canadian “Temporary Resident Visa”

Many students and scholars are required to obtain visitor visas, called “Temporary Resident Visas” (“TRV”), from the Canadian Consulate prior to traveling to Canada. To find out if you need a Canadian visa, please visit www.cic.gc.ca/english/visit/visas.asp

To apply for a Canadian Temporary Resident Visa, submit the following to the Canadian Consulate (by mail or in person):

- Completed Application for Temporary Resident Visa (Form IMM5257, attached).
The application form must be legible and must be completed in block letters or typed
Note: A fillable form is available at:
http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/pdf/kits/forms/imm5257b\(pilot\).pdf.pdf)
- Completed Supplementary Information form (attached, use only if you answered “yes” to Question #15, sections b-e on the Application for Temporary Resident Visa)
- Completed Schedule 1 (attached)
- Certification Letter from ISSS (showing full-time enrollment at UB)
- Two (2) recent passport size photographs. The photographs must have been taken within the last six months
- Your original, valid passport or recognized travel document
- Your original I-94 card
- Your original I-20 (or, if in J status, original DS-2019, or, if in H status, original I-797)
- Any other documents which will satisfy the officer that you are entering Canada for a temporary purpose (e.g. letter of invitation from a relative or a friend in Canada, bank statements, proof that you are enrolled in full-time classes, etc.)
- If the purpose of your trip to Canada is to apply for a visa at a U.S. Consulate in Canada, supply the appointment / interview confirmation letter.  Please also see the ISSS handout, “Applying for a U.S. Visa at a U.S. Consulate in Canada” for other important information regarding this procedure. ***
- If applying by mail, enclose a self-addressed envelope large enough to accommodate your passport and supporting documents. Please note that the Canadian Consulate will return documents ONLY via the U.S. Postal Service and will not accept responsibility for lost or stolen documents. For this reason, ISSS recommends applying in person for your Canadian visa.

- Non-refundable application processing fee:

Single Entry Temporary Resident Visa

US $70 Can. $75

The single entry visitor visa allows you to enter Canada only ONCE from ANY country. The single entry visa may also be used for repeated entries into Canada from the U.S. Such entries must occur between the validity dates on the visa stamp in your passport.

Multiple Entry Temporary Resident Visa

US $140 Can. $150

The multiple entry visitor visa allows you to enter Canada from any country an unlimited number of times during the validity dates of the visa. This visa is often used by individuals traveling to their home countries via the Toronto airport. If applying for a multiple entry visa, you must also provide a detailed explanation of why it is required.

Payment should be made by certified check or money order. Cash is accepted ONLY if you are applying IN PERSON. Do not send cash in the mail. Fees may be remitted in either U.S. or Canadian funds. Money orders and certified checks should be made payable to the “Canadian Consulate General.”

Since fees are subject to change and your application cannot be processed if the wrong fee amount is submitted. Therefore, BEFORE you apply for your visa, we urge you to confirm the fee amount at
