“Traditional Bengali Folk Dance with Western Infusion”
UB Bangladeshi Student Association
BSA will perform a dance that fuses the simple elements of traditional Bengali folk dance with modern dances from western culture. This performance is meant to express the duality of the students living in the U.S.—the potentially clashing aspects of their culture and the influence of their surroundings.

Dance Performance: “Dikir Barat”
UB Malaysian Student Association
Native to the Malay Peninsula, dikir barat may be performed either with percussion instrumental accompaniment or with no instruments at all. The dance is similar to Endang Dance except with more clapping. The performers usually sit cross-legged on a platform.

Poongmul Percussion Performance
UB Korean Folk Art Club
Korean Poongmul drumming, also called Nong Ak, means farmer’s music. About two thousand years old, it is played during festivals to celebrate planting and harvesting, and is accompanied by an energetic dance. The Korean Folk Art Club (KFAC) will perform at IEW for the 14th time.

Dance Performance: “A Glimpse of Indian Culture”
UB Zeal – Indian Student Association
UB Zeal is an Indian Fusion dance team which is part of UB’s Indian Student Association. Our performance consists of classical dance with a mix of Indian Bollywood. We will be representing our culture through a mixture of the modern and traditional aspects of India.

Alma Nanichi Dance Performance: “Dia de los muertos”
UB Latin American Student Association
The Latin American Student Association’s (LASA) dance team is called Alma Nanichi. Alma Nanichi translated means “Soul from the Heart”. LASA strives to share Latin culture through dance performances and workshops. It specializes in dances such as bachata, salsa, merengue and many more dances with roots in the Latin culture.

Multi-Themed Dance Exhibition: American and Latin Dance Styles
UB Department of Athletics, Aerobic Dance and Group Fitness Classes
