

Join ISSS for a Trip to the Queen City Roller Derby

Experience something like you've never seen before!. Roller derby is an American-invented full-contact sport—and historically, a form of sports entertainment—based on formation roller skating around an oval track. Like a mix of ice hockey and wrestling, contemporary roller derby is international, predominantly female, & typically operates on an amateur (or unpaid) circuit. A free class explaining the game will be taught by roller derby players before the match. We'll watch 2 matches. It will be an experience you'll never forget.

- When: Saturday, January 24, 2009
Meet at: 5:00 PM at 210 Talbert Hall
Return: 11:00 PM, Flint Loop, North Campus
- Cost: $20 (for ticket, mini-class taught by professionals, and round-trip bus) Non-Refundable
- Sign Up: 210 Talbert Hall before 4:00 PM on Thursday, January 22
(or while seats are available)
- More Information is online at: www.queencityrollergirls.net

Roller Derby: January 24, 2009

NAME: _____
Family Name Given Name

E-MAIL: _____ PHONE: _____