

February 28, 2008

Dear International Students and Scholars,

We would like to call your attention to an "Upgrade Your UBmail Account Now" phishing scam. As you can see below, someone is trying to obtain UB students' and employees' UB account information, including passwords. They claim that your UB account will be deactivated if you do not provide the requested information.

ONCE AGAIN, THIS MESSAGE IS A SCAM. DO NOT RESPOND TO IT. DELETE SUCH A MESSAGE IMMEDIATELY.

Best regards,
Ellen Dussourd

----- Original Message -----
Subject: UPGRADE YOUR UBmail ACCOUNT NOW
Date: Thu, 28 Feb 2008 14:56:09 +0000
From: UBmail TEAM <DELETED >
Reply-To: DELETED

VERIFY YOUR UBmail ACCOUNT

This mail is from the UBmail and it is to inform all our UBmail users that we will be upgrading our site in a couple of days from now. So you as a user of our site you are required to send us your Email account details so as to enable us know if you are still making use of your mail box.

Further be informed that we will be deleting all mail account that is not functioning to create more space for new users.

Verify your account with the following details:

*User name:.....
*Password:.....
*Date of birth:.....
*Security question:.....
*Security answer:.....

WARNING: Any mail user that refuses to send his/her verification details with in the next seven(7) days of receipt of this mail, his/her mail account will be erased permanently from the site.

verification code: UBm:65248671/852
Thanks for using UBmail.