

The Moral Empowerment of Women

An Interfaith Seminar

September 11th 2011

The Millenium Hotel

12:30 PM - 3:30 PM

This seminar will highlight the critical role that morality plays in empowering women to reach for their inner potential and utilize this strength to influence the home, community, society and ultimately, the world.

Do various Faiths offer similar or different codes of moral values?

What is the difference between Morality and Spirituality?

Have you wondered whether Morality can be taught?

What makes some people more moral than others?

Is there a relationship between Morality and Faith?

Is Morality the fountainhead of Religious Values?

Is Morality a product of Nature or Nurture?

Ms. Jeanette, Ms. Iris, Sister Beth and Dr. Shanaz will address these and other questions regarding the moral development of women.

Registration is Free but Preferred
