

Practice Based Learning & Improvement: Designing a Quality Improvement Project

PBL&I Core Curriculum Master Session

Thursday, November 15, 2007

5:00-7:30 PM

Butler Auditorium

UB School of Medicine

*Residents arriving after 5:45
will NOT receive credit*

Food will Be served 5:00-5:30

This session will include:

- A brief didactic session outlining the importance of Practice Based Learning skills and the need for Quality Improvement (QI).
- Interactive small group sessions providing participants practical guidance in designing a QI project.

This body of knowledge fulfills the Practice Based Learning & Improvement (formerly Evidence Based Medicine) Core Curriculum graduation requirement.

The second of four Core Curriculum Master Sessions this academic year sponsored by the UB Office of Graduate Medical Education

Dinner Provided - RSVP Required
Please respond to your Program Coordinator by Monday, November 5, 2007

so PC's can register residents via the web by Thursday, November 8, 2007